Patrick Endorsed by Houston Police Officers' Union PAC

"Lt. Governor Patrick stands with the men and women in blue, and we are proud to stand with him."

HOUSTON, TX – Lt. Governor Dan Patrick announced today that he has been endorsed by the Houston Police Officers' Union PAC. In making the endorsement, President of HPOU Doug Griffith said:

"The Houston Police Officers' Union PAC proudly endorses Lt. Governor Dan Patrick for re-election. Lt. Governor Patrick has remained one of our biggest allies throughout his years as an elected official. From providing funding for bulletproof vests that can withstand high-caliber rounds, to first responder property tax relief, to the most recent measures to stop local defunding of police, Lt. Governor Patrick's consistent track record of supporting law enforcement has made it safer for us to uphold our duty to protect Texans. Now more than ever, we need leaders like him who will remain steadfast in their commitment to supporting law enforcement.

Lt. Governor Patrick stands with the men and women in blue, and we are proud to stand with him."

One of the largest police unions in the United States, the Houston Police Officers' Union has been providing support for Houston police officers since 1945.
