Texas Dental Association PAC Backs Lt. Governor Patrick

HOUSTON, TX – Lt. Governor Dan Patrick announced the support for his re-election from the Texas Dental Association (DENPAC).

“The Texas Dental Association is proud to support Lt. Governor Patrick for re-election. Governor Patrick understands oral health’s correlation to overall health and the importance of maintaining high standards when it comes to dental patient care,” said TDA Legislative Council Chair, Dr. Matt Roberts.

With over 9,200 members and 26 component dental societies across the state, the Texas Dental Association is the third largest dental association in the country.
