Lt. Governor Patrick Endorsed by Texas Restaurant Association PAC

“He’s committed to working with Texas’ entrepreneurs to ensure our economy continues to grow.”

HOUSTON, TX – Lt. Governor Dan Patrick announced today that he has been endorsed by the Texas Restaurant Association PAC. In making the endorsement, Dr. Emily Williams Knight, Ed.D., President and CEO of the Association, said:

“The Texas Restaurant Association Political Action Committee is proud to endorse Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick for re-election. Lieutenant Governor Patrick has helped restaurants across the state through an incredibly difficult two years, working hand-in-hand with the Texas Restaurant Association to cut through red tape and find innovative policy solutions like alcohol to-go. He knows firsthand the struggle of running a small business, and he’s committed to working with Texas’ entrepreneurs to ensure our economy continues to grow. The Texas Restaurant Association Political Action Committee looks forward to continuing to work with Lieutenant Governor Patrick and is proud to endorse his re-election campaign.”

The Texas Restaurant Association (TRA) is the leading business association for Texas’ $52.4 billion foodservice industry, which spans over 50,000 locations throughout the state, employing a workforce of 1.3 million.
