Patrick Supported by Texas Land and Title Association

"Keeping Texas real estate strong..."

HOUSTON, TX – Lt. Governor Dan Patrick announced today that he has the support of the Texas Land and Title Association Political Action Committee (TLTAPAC). In making the announcement, Aaron Day, Director of Government Affairs and Counsel, TLTA, said:

"We appreciate Dan Patrick's leadership in keeping Texas real estate strong. The Texas economy is the envy of the nation and that starts at the top with the type of stewardship the Lt. Governor continues to provide."

Founded in 1908, TLTA is a statewide trade association representing the Texas title insurance industry and currently serving over 15,000 professionals involved in the safe and efficient transfer of real estate. With active members in 253 of 254 Texas counties, TLTA membership comprises over 85 percent of all title insurance agents and underwriters licensed to do business in Texas.
