Patrick Endorsed by San Antonio Police Officers Association PAC

“He has always put public safety first...”

HOUSTON, TX – Lt. Governor Dan Patrick announced today that he has been endorsed by the San Antonio Police Officers Association Political Action Committee. In making the endorsement, Ofc. Johnny Perez, San Antonio Police Officers Association PAC Chairman said:

“Dan Patrick will keep our communities safe. As Lt. Governor, he has always put public safety first and enforced the laws of the great state of Texas. Dan Patrick has stood by our police officer family, and we stand with him as he seeks re-election. He has the full support and respect of the San Antonio Police Officers Association.”

The San Antonio Police Officers Association Political Action Committee (SAPOA PAC) represents the concerns of police officers and their families to elected officials at all levels of government. The PAC carries the voice of the membership and advocates for legislation, benefits, and working conditions for San Antonio’s police officers.
