Dan Patrick Supported by Texas Optometric Association TOPAC

HOUSTON, TX – Lt. Governor Dan Patrick announced today the support of the Texas Optometric Association (TOPAC) in his bid for re-election. In making the announcement, Steve Nguyen, O.D., President of the Texas Optometric Association, said:

“The Texas Optometric Association PAC proudly supports Lt. Governor Dan Patrick for re-election. His hard work and focus on modernizing eye care delivery has resulted in vastly improved access to eye care for Texans.”

Founded in 1900, the Texas Optometric Association is the leading eye and vision care organization in the state.
